

Environmental Services Week 2022 Quiz

1. How many times does the chain of infection need to be broken to prevent the spread of infection?
 - a. Once
 - b. Three times
 - c. More than five times
 - d. Never
2. In which ways can you impact patient safety?
 - a. By keeping rooms clean
 - b. By helping to create a quiet and comfortable environment for patients
 - c. By being friendly and professional
 - d. All of the above
3. When removing isolation room PPE, what article of PPE should be removed first?
 - a. Gown
 - b. Gloves
 - c. Face Shield
 - d. Goggles
4. True or False: When mopping, you should clean back to front, starting in the corner farthest from the door.
 - a. True
 - b. False
5. In a discharged patient room, all linens should be considered ____?
 - a. Clean
 - b. Fresh
 - c. Contaminated
 - d. Spotless